DECREE IN HAND CASE

Judge Humphreys signed a decree yesterday in the case of Robert Hind vs. Elen P. Low, dissolving the co-partnership formerly existing between the parties of action. The judge says: "The court being of the opinion that the articles of co-partnership attached to the bill of complaint herein entitle the complainant to a dissolution of the co-partnership existing between himself and the defendant absolutely and of right, doth order, adjudge and decree that the co-partnership heretofore existing between the same is hereby dissolved, with leave to the complainant to present for the consideration of the court such further and other decrees as may be necessary to settle and adjust the affairs of said co-partnership, and with leave to the defendant to amend his answer or file a cross-bill for the purpose of praying for the reformation or amendment of said articles of co-partnership."

Pain, filed a demurrer yesterday by his attorneys, Dunne and Brockens, and by protestation, not confessing all or any of the matters and things mentioned, demurred as follows: First, that the plaintiff has no legal capacity to sue; second, that there is a misjoinder of parties defendant; third, that the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

Similar answer is made by the Hawaiian Tramways Co., Ltd.

Replications of plaintiffs in the action of the Sun Kwong Mau Co. vs. Waikiki Land and Loan Association, the Honolulu Rapid Transit Co. and Jas. McKee, were filed in answer to defendants, Waikiki Land and Loan Association and Jas. McKee.

Jas. F. Morgan, garnishee in the assumpsit action of Macfarlane & Co., Ltd., vs. Waikiki Beach Co., Ltd., in his answer denies that the "goods, chattels and effects of the defendant are concealed in his hands so that they cannot be found to be attached or levied upon, or were so concealed in his hands at the time of service of the process herein upon him." He admits that on the day service of process was made upon him he was indebted to the defendant in the sum of $14.90, which he is now holding subject to the order of the court.

PROBATE DAY.

The following probate matters are set for hearing today: Estate Akoi, petition for administrator; estate E. C. Macfarlane, petition for probate of will; estate Jas. H. Boyd, a minor, petitioner's report; estate Tui Naheulua, report of guardian; estate Jas. Robinson, accounts and master's report.

The jury in the case of the Territory vs. J. T. Figuro, Manuel Carvalho and J. J. Souza, charged with assault and battery on one Manuel, returned a verdict of not guilty late yesterday afternoon.

BOTHERED BY YANKEE MONEY

An Australian passenger on the Ventura bound for the coronation ceremonies entered a Fort Street store on Wednesday and inquired the price of cigars. Some were shown him for which five cents each was asked. He figured out the relative value of five cents and the pence of England, and then inquired:

"How much per dozen?"

"Forty cents."

"How much for a half dozen?"

"Twenty cents."

"Um! Well, give me four for five cents apiece."

The clerk complied with the request and wondered what next would come from the South Seas.

Hail To Men!

Even unto old age you may feel the vigor of youth, with its light heart, elastic step, courage and tireless energy. You may be free from pains and aches and defy your years.

There is a fountain of perpetual youth and you have only to reach out your hand and take it. You can drink of it until your heart shouts with gladness, and with all your might you will proclaim, as other men have.

"I Am a Man!"

Like the giants of old, you can be in your prime at 60—strong, vigorous and full of youthful enthusiasm.

GUNN SECTIONAL BOOK CASES

Doors operate on roller bearings as shown in the cut, and cannot possibly bind. This ingenious device allows the door to be operated with a single knob, leaving one hand free for removing or replacing the books. The Gunn Book Case is far superior to any other on the market, in every respect,—has great improvements over others and costs no more. Come and examine it.

Diamonds As an Investment

Are not usually the most profitable things to buy; but when they are constantly increasing in price, as they have been for the past three years, and give every promise of continuing, they might well be considered by you as a SAFE NEST EGG.

BUT FEW PERFECT DIAMONDS are being found today, nearly all the rough found is very imperfect, which is the real cause of the tremendous and steady advance in price.

A PERFECT DIAMOND will therefore be of very great value in a few years, and those inclined to dispose of their perfect stones later on, will realize a handsome profit on their investment.

The most perfect diamonds have always gone to America, but the time is coming when Americans will have to be content with imperfect stones, or pay fabulous prices for the perfect.

The duties on cut diamonds imported to America are now only ten per cent, while the rough is free; thus bringing the price of diamonds about uniform to the world over.

We have many fine pieces bought before the last few rises, on which we have not advanced the prices; they are well worth your consideration.

We Invite Comparisons

Most of our diamonds are sold to transients, people from the East, who know what values are.

If argument were necessary, this should be the most convincing that our prices are right.
